RE: BBC Radio Devon Choir Competition Voting

Dear Parent,

I am writing to you to ask for your help this Friday and into next week in voting for our Chamber Choir, who are through to the final of the BBC Radio Devon 'Star for Christmas' Competition with the chance to perform at their Christmas Concert at Exeter Cathedral.

The children's performance of Deck the Halls has been played on the radio and for them to win it is now up to the listeners and friends of the school. A public online vote will run from 30th November – 6th December 2018 with the winning choir announced on Friday 7th December. It would be a fantastic opportunity should the children be successful and so we are asking for your support in voting and also in sharing the information as far and wide as possible to encourage your friends, family and colleagues to vote too.

You can listen to the entry and, from this Friday, register your vote here. You will need to log into a BBC account as you would to use iPlayer or, I have been informed, to vote on Strictly Come Dancing! Children under 13 need to have their parent's permission to create account. If you are happy for an account to be set up at school please email your class teacher. We will use this as an opportunity to discuss safety and giving away personal information and the best account settings to stay safe online.

I do hope that you will support the children and the school by taking the time to vote.

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan Bishop
Executive Headteacher
